

Happy New Year!

A message from Seth

I hope that this past holiday season was rich in relationships and abundant in joy! As I took the time to evaluate this past year, there is a feeling of appreciation and excitement. I am grateful that you have trusted me to help with your dreams, aspirations, and hard-earned money. Trust is not merely given but earned every day.

As you know, Four Arrows Financial Group went through the intentional transition to a new broker dealer in September. I had been planning this for quite some time and although it wasn't easy, it was extremely worthwhile. So, thank you to everyone that supported us through this change.

As we embark on 2023, my team and I are excited to touch base with you this year. The core of what we do is YOU... and we don't ever want to lose sight of that. Be on the lookout over the next few months for communication from us to set up a time to review and connect. As always, if you need us beforehand, we're here for you!

Our team is looking forward to serving you in the new year!
